We're rolling out the blue and white carpet!

THE SPIRIT OF BANNOCKBURN

A night of Scottish revelry at Vector Arena on Friday 30th September.

(The night before we greet the "Auld Enemy". Scotland v England at Eden Park!)

The fan night to end all fan nights... a chance for "kilted kiwis" to join with visitors from the old country in celebrating all things Scottish. No matter which version of Hamilton or Oban you hail from, if you have so much as a drop of Scots blood running through your veins, or even just a bit of love for Scotland in your heart, you'll find this the most gallus party you attend all year!

Live music from The Red Hot Chilli Pipers
(Purveyors of "Bagrock", and Scotland's Live Act of the Year 2010)

Stand up comedy from Des McLean
(Billy Connolly loves him!)

Hearty Scots fare available for sale, including haggis, neeps & tatties, Lorne sausage and Tunnocks teacakes!

Whisky tasting and other cultural Scottish happenings in the foyers.

Draft beer bar inside the arena itself.

Big Screens to relive those great historical moments of Scottish triumph (and disaster!)

Great music - a fine playlist of Scottish Classic Hits to get the heart pumping - tracks from Franz Ferdinand, Travis, Del Amitri, Deacon Blue, Simple Minds, Texas, Big Country, Rod Stewart, Annie Lennox, Snow Patrol, The Proclaimers and so many more...

All the camaraderie of your local... but huge! Anyone claiming the smallest smidge of Scottish ancestry is warmly welcomed. So if your cousin's auntie's boyfriend used to live next door to a Scotsman, that'll do!

Gather your clan!
Rise up and be the nation!
Wear the kilt, wear the saltire, but most of all, wear a big smile!

Earlybird tickets $39 available until 31st August, $49 thereafter.
Available from Ticketmaster from Thursday 18th August. R16.
Doors open 7pm

Bistro Arena opens 5pm for sit down meals of proper Scots fare before the party begins.
