HISTORY OF THE GATHERING

1912:

Chief of Clan Maclean, Sir Fitzroy Maclean hosted a gathering at Duart Castle to celebrate its return to his Clan, after many decades under rule of the Campbells. 700 Maclean Clan members from all over the world accepted their invitations and attended what would become the largest Clan gathering in modern times. The Maclean flag was raised atop Duart Castle for the first time in 221 years, and a tradition was created which would continue on for the next 100 years (and counting).

2012:

People from all over the world will gather at Duart Castle and the town of Tobermory, to celebrate Clan Maclean and Scottish culture with a week of festivities, including the 1912 programme: a ceilidh; a dance; a clan march headed by the marshals and chieftains of the clan, along with pipers; a welcome from the chief; the raising of the flag; a religious service; personal introductions to the chief and his family; solo piping; speeches in honour of the clan history; Gaelic recitations; activities round the castle; a lunch of several relays in a marquee; and a group photograph

As well as many new activities. (www.clanmaclean.org)

Be part of the celebration—join Bob Wallace’s tour to Mull, and experience Scottish culture and heritage at its best, without the hassle of organising accommodation and transport. Have the benefit of being part of a small group, without the heavy costs. Phone 0800 HAGGIS or email bob@celt.co.nz

IMPORTANT DATES:

17th June: Bob will pick you up from Glasgow Airport. Overnight in Glasgow.
